PROJECTS

Simon Says Game: Developed an interactive Simon Says memory game where users repeat randomly generated color sequences. Implemented game logic, event handling, and DOM manipulation using JavaScript, with responsive UI design using HTML and CSS. (Project Link)

Spotify Clone: Developed a Spotify-inspired web player interface using HTML and CSS, replicating key UI components such as sidebar navigation, music library section, playlist cards, and a bottom music player. Implemented responsive layouts, sticky navigation, and modern styling to mimic the look and feel of the Spotify platform. (Project Link)

Ai Interview Platform: Developed and deployed an AI-powered mock interview platform using HTML, CSS (Tailwind), JavaScript, Node.js, Express.js, and MongoDB. Implemented resume analysis, AI-generated interview questions, and automated answer evaluation with a performance analytics dashboard. Built secure authentication and file upload features using RESTful APIs, and hosted the full stack application online on Render. (Project Link)
